Istanbul Medipol University

Learning Outcomes of Physical Therapy and Rehabilitation M.S

AIM

To train physiotherapists who can apply preventive physiotherapy approach and to increase quality of life in public by following the technological developments.

KNOWLEDGE
Theoretical/Factual

PO-1. Equipped with adequate, trustworthy and up-to-date knowledge of Physiotherapy and Rehabilitation.
PO-2. Equipped with the knowledge to plan and practice the Physiotherapy program, making use of the right assessment techniques on the healthy, the handicapped and the ones in need of physiotherapy.
PO-3. Equipped with the knowledge related with physiotherapy practice

SKILLS
Cognitive/Practical

PO-4. Using the theoretical and practical knowledge in the field of physiotherapy performs assessment and planning of physiotherapy practice, for individuals requiring physiotherapy and rehabilitation.
PO-5. Performs applications of assessment, planning and physiotherapy practices by using of technological development and health policies.
PO-6. Reflect practices and analyze the problems by using the knowledge and the skills of the field of physiotherapy.

COMPETENCY
Ability to work independently and take responsibility

PO-7. Using the knowledge in the field of physiotherapy, by making analysis and synthesis, works independently and takes responsibility.
PO-8. Execution, organizing, presenting the services of the physiotherapy and rehabilitation in daily practices and within the scope of planning project, solving problem, manages plans while watching the process and evaluating.

Learning Competence

PO-9. In the physiotherapy field life long, learning, developing new ideas, considering importance to quality, evaluates the knowledge sources through a critical approach.
PO-10. Reaches the knowledge by using effectively the professional knowledge sources and physiotherapy techniques, adopts positive manner and attitude model and describes learning targets.

Communication and Social Competence

PO-11. Uses the information and communication technologies related with the physiotherapy and rehabilitation field, by communicating verbal and written ways, expresses himself effectively.
PO-12. In the health field, watches the developments in the agenda of the society and the world and evaluates with the conscious of social responsibility.

Field-based Competence

PO-13. In the physiotherapy and rehabilitation practices, by looking after the duty, rights and responsibilities, within the cooperation of the related disciplines, acts appropriately to the professional ethical rules and legislation.
PO-14. Practices the physiotherapy and rehabilitation applications for the professional honesty and benefit of individual by bearing responsibility and forming an accurate model through providing safety in every step.