End-of-Year Turkish Proficiency Exam Dates

The first stage of the End-of-Year Turkish Proficiency Exam, organized by the Turkish Preparatory School, will be held on 22 June 2026, and the second stage will be held on 24 June 2026. The list of students eligible to proceed to the second stage will be announced on the website on 23 June 2026.

How Can I Apply for the Exam?

International students who wish to take the exam must complete the required application form. The form is available at the bottom of this announcement. Please read the information carefully before submitting your application.

NOTE: Applications submitted after the deadline (18 June 2026, 12:00 PM) will not be accepted. Information regarding exam venues and classrooms will be announced on the website on 19 June 2026.

How Will the Exam Be Conducted?

The exam will consist of two stages:

Stage 1

Students will be assessed in Listening, Reading, and Writing skills. Students who score below 13 points in any of these skill areas will not be eligible to take the Speaking Exam.

Stage 2

The names of students who score 13 points or above in all skill areas of Stage 1 will be announced on the website. The announcement will include the names of the students as well as the date and time of their Speaking Exam.

The exam will be conducted face-to-face. No online exam will be administered.

NOTE: All students must bring a valid ID document and their own pens. Students will also be required to provide their student numbers and email addresses during the exam.

How Will I Learn My Exam Results?

Exam results will be announced on the Turkish Preparatory School Coordination Office website.

Who Will Be Considered Successful?

Students whose Turkish proficiency is determined to be at the B2–C1 level based on the exam results will be exempt from the Turkish Preparatory Program.
